

PSI CHI INTERNATIONAL
HONOR SOCIETY
IN PSYCHOLOGY

Virtual Declaration Week

Monday, April 05 through Friday, April 09

Attention All Prospective Psychological and Brain Science and Cognitive Neuroscience Students

I. Are you asking any of the following questions?

Should I major or minor in Psychological and Brain Sciences or in Cognitive Neuroscience?

What kind of classes would I need to take to major in Psychological and Brain Sciences?

What is a concentration in Cognitive Neuroscience like, and how is it different from a major?

What are the most interesting electives I can take?

What other majors/minors work well with a PBS and CogNeuro majors?

What are the 4000-level Research Lab courses like?

How do I get involved with professor-sponsored/guided research?

What is Psi Chi International Honor Society in Psychology or Honors in Psychology?

A group of Psi Chi students will be available to answer the above questions at the following times on Monday, April 05: 10am-11:30am, 1:30pm-3:30pm, 5-6:30pm, and 8-9pm. Feel free to stop in even if for 10 or 15 minutes to get answers to your questions. Here is the link:

II. Are you considering declaring your major or minor in Psychological and Brain Science or Cognitive Neuroscience?

Psi Chi and the Department of Psychological and Brain Sciences are hosting our spring Declaration Week. Faculty advisors and members of Psi Chi are eager to answer your questions and help you declare your major or minor!

A. To declare a Major in Cognitive Neuroscience you must contact Dr. Dwight Kravitz at kravitzd@gwu.edu

B. To Declare a Major or Minor in Psychological and Brain Sciences you have two options:

Option 1: Contact Dr. Dopkins to make an appointment through the following link:

<https://calendar.google.com/calendar/u/0/selfsched?sstoken=UU41VUJMMndtMkdLGRIZmF1bHR8Y2ZiOGM1NTYyYWRiNTVhNGZkOWViNDQwN2MyMWQwNzE>

Option 2: Use this option for Dr. Schell at dschell@gwu.edu who will schedule a Zoom appointment with you.

III. Steps to Follow:

To make it easier for us to help you, we've provided a set of steps as follows:

1. Get the major declaration form, available at <https://advising.columbian.gwu.edu/forms>
2. Fill out all sections in the top half (your advisor will be Dr. Dopkins).
3. Fill out the major declaration form ("Suggested Plan of Study") with the courses that you have taken, are currently taking, and will take toward the major or minor. The list of courses should add up to a major or minor in Psychological and Brain Sciences: <http://bulletin.gwu.edu/arts-sciences/psychological-and-brain-sciences/ba/> Remember this is a plan only.
4. Make sure you sign and date the form.
